The parts of the plant Khat (Catha edulis) which grow above ground and the mushrooms Psilocybe semilanceata (liberty cap) and Psilocybe cubensis are also to be considered narcotic drugs, in accordance with the Narcotic Penal Act. The same shall apply to other fungi containing the substances psilocybin or psilocin, if such fungi have been cultivated, dried or otherwise prepared.

Furthermore, when enforcing the Ordinance, 'cannabis' shall mean the parts of all plants of the Cannabis genus which grow above ground (with the exception of the seed) from which the resin has not been extracted, and irrespective of the names under which it may appear. 'Cannabis' shall not, however, mean hemp that:
